During 1951 the Tientsin-Puk'ou Railway Administration mobilized 50,000 laborers for the construction of a railroad from Yuch'eng (116-38, 36-57) to Linch'ing (115-42, 36-51) via Kao'teng (116-13, 36-53) and Hsiaching (116-00, 36-57). During the winter of 1951, this line was opened to traffic and work was begun on the extension of the line to Kuant'ao (115-24, 36-39) and Taming (115-04, 36-14). In late December the road bed was laid from Linch'ing to Liao-ch'eng (115-57, 36-28). This line will facilitate the transportation of cotton and foodstuffs from west Shantung.
